

§ 101-8.725

(1) 180 calendar days elapse after the complainant files the complaint and GSA makes no finding with regard to the complaint; or

(2) GSA Issues a finding in favor of the recipient.

(b) If GSA fails to make a finding within 180 days or issues a finding in favor of the recipient, GSA must:

(1) Promptly advise the complainant of this fact;

(2) Advise the complainant of his or her right to bring civil action for injunctive relief; and

(3) Inform the complainant:

(i) That the complainant may bring civil action only in a United States district court for the district in which the recipient is located or transacts business;

(ii) That a complainant prevailing in a civil action has the right to be awarded the costs of the action, including reasonable attorney's fees, but that the complainant must demand these costs in the complaint;

(iii) That before commencing the action the complainant must give 30 calendar days notice by registered mail to the Secretary, HHS, The Administrator, the Attorney General of the United States, and the recipient;

(iv) That the notice must state the alleged violation of the Act, the relief requested, the court in which the complainant is bringing the action, and whether or not attorney's fees are demanded in the event the complainant prevails; and

(v) That the complainant may not bring an action if the same alleged violation of the Act by the same recipient is the subject of a pending action in any court of the United States.

§ 101-8.725 Alternate funds disbursal.

If GSA withholds Federal financial assistance from a recipient under this regulation, the Administrator may disburse the assistance to an alternate recipient; any public or nonprofit private organization; or agency or State or political subdivision of the State. The Administrator requires any alternate recipient to demonstrate:

(a) The ability to comply with this regulation; and

41 CFR Ch. 101 (7-1-99 Edition)

(b) The ability to achieve the goals of the Federal Statutes authorizing the program or activity.

§ 101-9.101 Authority.

Section 2 of Public Law 94-575, the Federal Records Management Amendments of 1976 (FRMA), as amended, requires the Administrator of General Services to provide guidance and assistance to Federal agencies on records management, which includes the processing of mail by a Federal agency.

Federal Property Management Regulations

§ 101-9.103

GSA's responsibility extends to all Federal agencies.

§ 101-9.102 Objective.

The objective of mail management is to ensure rapid handling and accurate delivery of mail throughout the agency at minimum cost consistent with agency mission requirements.

§ 101-9.103 Definitions.

In part 101-9, the following definitions apply:

Addressing standards means the rules and regulations governing the addressing of mail, developed by the U.S. Postal Service, that enhance the processing and delivery of mail, reduce "undeliverable as addressed" mail, and provide cost reduction opportunities.

Class of mail means the classes of mail (First-Class, Second-Class, Third-Class, Fourth-Class, and Express Mail) established by the U.S. Postal Service for U.S. domestic mail.

Courier means a private delivery company or an individual that works for such a company.

Expedited mail is a generic term used to describe mail to be delivered faster than U.S. Postal Service delivery of First, Second, Third, and Fourth-Class mail.

Facility means any location where mail is processed for dispatch.

Facility mail manager means the persons responsible for mail management at a facility.

Federal agency or agency means any executive department as defined in 5 U.S.C. 101, a wholly owned Government corporation as defined in 31 U.S.C. 9101, any independent establishment in the executive branch as defined in 5 U.S.C. 104, any establishment in the legislative or judicial branch of the Government (except the Supreme Court, the Senate, the House of Representatives, and the Architect of the Capitol and any activities under the direction of the Architect of the Capitol).

Incoming mail means mail coming into the agency delivered by an outside source (vendor or agency).

Internal mail means mail that is transmitted within an agency by that agency's mail center staff, including worldwide distribution, and is not processed for delivery by the U.S. Postal Service or any private company.

Letter means a message directed to a specific person or address and recorded in or on a tangible object. A message consists of any information or intelligence which is recorded on tangible objects such as paper in sheet and card form, or magnetic media.

Mail means letters, hard copies of electronic communications, memoranda, post and postal cards, documents, drawings, microfiche, publications, catalogs and other hard copy communications, as well as packages meeting U.S. Postal Service size and weight requirements, for distribution or dispatch regardless of the distribution, dispatch, or delivery method including messengers and couriers. An item is considered mailable if it meets the following requirements set by the U.S. Postal Service: a mailable item is an item that will not injure people or property, weighs 70 pounds or less, and is not more than 108 inches (combined length and girth). Mailability requirements, restrictions, and exceptions are found in the U.S. Postal Service's Domestic Mail Manual (other mail vendors provide similar written guidance for items sent via their delivery services).

Mail center means a centralized location where mail is processed.

Mail piece design means preparation of letters, cards, and flats consistent with U.S. Postal Service requirements and recommendations.

Mail preparation means those processes involved in preparing mail for dispatch in such a way that it meets U.S. Postal Service requirements. These processes include, but are not limited to: sorting, barcoding, banding, air control tagging (ACT), designing mail pieces, and palletizing.

Messenger means an agency employee who delivers agency mail.

Outgoing mail means mail generated from within an agency facility that is addressed for delivery outside that facility; i.e., within or outside the agency, and is processed for delivery by the U.S. Postal Service or a private company.

Service standard means the dependability (consistency of arrival at addressee's location) and timeliness
